

The Best One

James T. Lochridge, Jr.

James T. Lochridge, Jr.

♩ = 96

You might ask me of all the days that I have lived, which If I ask you of all the days that you have lived, which one has been the best one. Of all the sun-sets and sun-ri-ses I have seen, which one has been the best one. Of all the sun-sets and sun-ri-ses you have seen, which one was the best one. You could ask me to choose of all my vic-to-ries which one was the best one. If I asked you to choose of all your vic-to-ries which one has been the best one. Or to state em - pha-tic' - ly of all my mem' - ries which was the one has been the best one. Or to state em - pha-tic' - ly of all your mem' - ries which was the best one. And I would say, with - out a doubt, the day I gave my life to best one. Friend, could you say, with - out a doubt, the day you gave your life to Christ, that was the best one; the day I re - cog - nized I was a sin - ner and I nee - ded to re - Christ, that was the best one; the day you re - cog - nized you were a sin - ner and you nee - ded to re - pent, that was the best one. The day I trusted in Christ to be my Sa - vior and pent, that was the best one. The day you trusted in Christ to be your Sa - vior and Lord, that was the best one. Yes! Of all the days that I have lived, with no he - si - ta - tion Lord, was that the best one. Friend, of all the days that you have lived, with no he - si - ta - tion

9

15

I will state, the day I gave my heart to Je - sus, that was the best one. The best one.
 can you state, "the day I gave my heart to Je - sus, that was the best one." 1